3 According to the Rules the Medical Officer has to travel a certain distance from a certain place known as the Headquarters before mileage allowance is given. Under the British Regime however mere travelling allowance was granted to the Medical Officer on circuit duty. The Medical Officer has to do a certain amount of touring in the interior and has to do some hard riding over bad roads in the rainy season. Special rates may be given. 50% extra cost for mileage is allowed. There are 12 miles a mile of bad roads. It would be reasonable for Govt taking a motor car & land it from ship as a special case.

Fort, Bangalore,

30th June 1913.

Dear Mr.L'Louza,

The Dewan permitted me to write to you about matters connected with my Special Duty.

I arrived here to-day and have been seeing to the arrangements necessary for my journey into the malnad. As this is the height of the monsoon, I find that the only way to do the tour in a satisfac tory manner is to engage a motor car. But the charges are very high- 12 annas a mile, with a minimum of Rs.40 a day ! (Besides cost of petrol etc).

In

In view of the special difficulties and expensiveness of a tour in the interior of the malnad in this season, I trust that the Dewan will be pleased to give me (1) permission to take a car by rail at Government expense to and from Shimoga and (2) a special rate of travelling allowance. A mileage rate of a rupee a day, and daily allowance as for a Deputy Secretary to Government or the Registrar of Co-operative Societies may barely cover the actual cost.

I dare say you are aware that there have been several instances in the past in which double the usual rates were allowed.

Or if the Government prefer it my actual expenses may be paid by Government.

As I ~~belie~~ believe that this will be regarded as a reasonable request, I am going to engage a car and I am arranging to leave this on the 3rd July. I shall be obliged by your obtaining early orders of the Dewan on this matter and send me a wire.

Yours sincerely,

Matthai
